THE ASYLUM CONTROVERSY.

Our evening contemporary insists that there is crookedness in the management of the Hospital for Mental Diseases. In support of this contention it gives figures. While figures do not lie they can be garbed so as to do lying service. As the Superintendent of the Hospital denies the Gazette's charges and the Gazette insists that it is telling the truth, one or the other must be mistaken.

The Hospital for Mental Diseases is a public institution supported by the State. The people therefore are interested in the matter. They have a right to know whether the charges brought against the management of the Hospital are true or false. The Commissioners, who under the law are entrusted with the care of the Hospital, should be able to satisfy the people on that important point without much trouble and at very little expense to the State. The contract for building the annex and all the bills for material, furniture, etc., are, or should be, on file in the office of the Board of Examiners or of the State Controller. The contract will show what the contractor had to do and the amount he was to receive for his work, and the bills will show what materials and furniture were purchased and what they cost. An examination of the premises will show whether the contract has been complied with and whether the furniture is on hand. The Commissioners can readily satisfy themselves whether there are any grounds for the Gazette's allegations or not and publish the facts, and it is but reasonable to assume that their findings will be satisfactory to the public generally as there is not the faintest suspicion that they are implicated in any of the contracts for building or furnishing supplies at the Hospital for Mental Diseases, though they are accountable to the public for the management of the institution.

It is unjust to the Superintendent of the Hospital, who has the reputation of conducting it humanely and economically and in accordance with the most approved methods, to place him under the suspicion of misappropriating the funds under his control, and the Commissioners owe it to themselves, to the Superintendent and to the public to investigate the charges and publish the result that the people may be satisfied.

MONGOLIAN LABOR IN PROTECTED INDUSTRIES.

Labor Commissioner Mr. Fitzgerald of California has just returned from an investigation of the labor employed on the beet sugar plantations at Pleasanton, Alvarado, Watsonville and Salinas, and finds that over 95 per cent of the labor employed is either Chinese or Japanese. Against this showing Hawaii employs nearly 15 per cent of white labor.

It appears that in the sugar, as in many other protected industries, a large per cent of the labor employed is Chinese, Japanese or imported pauper labor. This should not be. We are told that protection is for the benefit of the workingmen of the United States. If such is the fact why permit the employment of Chinese and Japanese?

If Congress is sincere in its assertions that the tariff is for the double purpose of providing revenue for the support of the government and giving employment to the people it will attach an amendment to the tariff bill prohibiting the employment of Asiatics or other imported labor in any protected industry. By so doing it will help the workingman as well as the trusts, and, to some extent, relieve itself from the suspicion that it is acting wholly in the interest of the monopolies.

Senators Hanna and Allison had a conference with President McKinley yesterday lasting half an hour. The President devoted the morning hours in opening up the mass of mail which had accumulated during his absence. A Cabinet meeting was held at the regular hour, all members being present. The annexation question of Hawaii and affairs in Cuba received attention. In regard to the latter no immediate action will be taken and it is believed that several weeks will elapse before anything of a vital nature is done. The Hawaiian question will be renewed at another Cabinet meeting.

SPANISH troops are returning from Cuba to Spain at the rate of 2,000 per month. It is believed that the movement of the Spanish troops is an indication that the insurgents have the best of the war and that disease among the Spanish soldiers is doing more than the insurgent's bullets possibly could do to free the Cubans. The climate does not agree with the foreigners and the natives have a great advantage in this particular.

SPAIN is alarmed over the reports that the United States is about to take action relative to the annexation of the Hawaiian islands. The report has caused considerable anxiety as it is believed that it is an indication of President McKinley's policy towards Cuba, and the ultimate intention of the United States towards that province of Spain.

No "magic" about Trib—no witchcraft. It is just a liniment, but supreme.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Dr. Samuel Marsh Martin, a prominent physician of Greenfield, Ind., committed suicide Tuesday night by hanging. It is supposed that despondency was the cause.

A strike of workmen in the tin plate industry at Pittsburg seems imminent. The conference on the wage scale will be held to-day but it is thought that neither party will make any concessions.

Eugene V. Debs addressed a large audience at Chicago yesterday on the objects of the "American Co-operative Brotherhood." He warned his audience that the plan he had outlined would involve hard work and courage of the highest order.

Leroy Kall, the ten-year-old son of Editor Kall of the Lafayette Sun of Colorado, and Martin Cornelius, an eight-year-old boy, were found dead in a field near Lafayette. It is supposed they died from eating some poisonous root, probably wild parsnip.

The British steamer Sultan, Captain Collins, bound for Calcutta with a large number of Mecca pilgrims, foundered near the Island of Socotra on the eastern coast of Africa. Ten natives were drowned, but the crew and most of the pilgrims were rescued.

Sharkey has challenged Peter Maher to a finish fight for from $500 to $10,000 sides as Maher may prefer. The match must take place within six months before the club offering the longest purse. Sharkey sails from New York to-day for Ireland on a visit to his parents.

President McKinley returned to Washington yesterday morning from his Southern tour. Secretary Alger and Mrs. Callum, who are invalids and who accompanied the President, are much improved. The President said he had enjoyed the trip and felt that it had done him great good.

The official inquiry into the death of Isaac Hoffman was commenced at San Francisco yesterday. A number of witnesses were examined regarding the wounds, position of the body when found, also events just prior to the murder and other circumstances, and the inquest was adjourned until this morning.

Geo. J. Hackett, a miner, was crushed to death in the Brown Bear mine near Weaverville Monday. He was working with a man named Peterson clearing away debris from an old field. The timbers of the tunnel suddenly gave way and the roof completely entombed Hackett. Peterson jumped back and escaped with a few bruises.

The London Globe thinks the question of the annexation of Hawaii is an international one and cannot be disposed of by one power alone. It is claimed that Great Britain should be consulted as the Islands can be made a strong naval station and that good reasons must be given for tearing up the treaty. The Full Mail Gazette and the Westminster Gazette admits that the annexation project is one of the possibilities of the near future and that Great Britain will not interfere in the least.

Barney Burnato, the South African diamond king, committed suicide while enroute to London from Cape Town by jumping from the steamer. A prompt attempt was made at rescue, but life was extinct when the boat's crew dragged him out of the ocean. His suicide caused intense excitement in London social circles. His action is supposed to have been caused by a recent illness which had produced brain trouble. He gave no warning of his intention at self-destruction. His wife and children were on the steamer.

At the Republican caucus Monday night it was determined not to incorporate in the tariff bill the amendment proposed by Senator Spooner to postpone the time when certain features of the schedule should go into effect until six months after the bill had passed with the intention of compelling the sugar trust to dispose of the surplus sugar that had been imported.

The position taken by the Senators was that it would be impracticable to have various portions of the bill go into effect at different times. Spooner's motion was defeated by a vote of 18 to 12.

Senator Tillman gave notice in the Senate yesterday that he would offer an amendment to the tariff bill providing that a head tax of $100 be levied and collected on all immigrants to the United States.

The amendment also makes it a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment for any person to enter the United States for the purpose of engaging in trade or manual labor without first intending to become a citizen.

The provisions are modified to the effect that they shall only remain in effect until silver shall have been admitted to our mints for coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1, on the same condition as gold.

Have Your Eyes Examined.

Dr. Mendelsohn, oculist optician, of San Francisco, has secured an office in the Bank of Nevada building, where he can be consulted by any person having eye trouble or inconvenience from glasses, causing neuralgia, headache, dizziness or inflammation of the eyes. The doctor comes to Reno highly recommended and is endorsed by the Nevada Medical Society and local physicians. All consultations free of charge and if glasses are required they will be furnished at reasonable prices. Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases. Office hours from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

THE SUGAR TRUST

Its Secrets and Why it has such Power
In Congress.

The sugar trust was organized in 1891. Conspicuous members and advisers: H. O. Havemeyer, J. P. Seares, F. O. Matheson, William Dick, W. B. Thomas and J. E. Parsons.

Havemeyer is the President of the company. His salary aggregates $100,000 per year. His estimated wealth is about $80,000,000.

Searles is the trust Treasurer. His salary is $75,000 per year. His wealth is estimated at about $20,000,000.

It produces over two and a quarter billion pounds of sugar every year.

By an increase of a trifle over half a cent in the pound it can increase its yearly profits over $16,000,000 a year.

By filling half a sheet of note paper with figures it can force from every man, woman and child in the country contributions amounting to a total of over $10,000,000 in twelve months.

Its President receives a salary as large again as that of the President of the United States, and his influence on legislation may be greater than that of the President of the United States.

The salary of its Treasurer is half as much again as that of the President of the United States.

The trust has 15,000 employees, representing a city of over 40,000 souls.

The average wages it pays these employees is only $12 a week.

Its average profits are $42,000,000 per year.

Total profits for eleven years, $390,663,968.

In his analysis of the trust's profits Henry D. Lloyd writes that "every half a cent up or down in the price of sugar makes a gain to the combination at the rate of $20,000,000 a year."

When it is remembered that every point up in the price of trust stocks means more millions, it no longer seems strange that the trust should contribute money by the hundred thousand in buying the rascals of both parties. Nor is it singular that it should promise the United States Senators investing "on the ground floor" in its stock a raise of thirty points, as it is said to have done in case of Senators who speculated through Chapman or others of his agents.

Its attitude towards labor is not less vicious.

This is illustrated by "its semi-annual shut-downs." Whenever there is more sugar on the market than it likes it shuts down refineries enough to check the supply, regardless of the effect on its badly paid labor. "The regular semi-annual shut-down at the Havemeyer refinery took place this morning," wrote an investigator of trust methods. "As a result 4,000 men are out of work, and as they make only a little over $6 a week, many of them have absolutely no means of supporting their families.

Another investigator who visited the refinery wrote:

"These men work hard in rooms the temperature of which is sometimes nearly 200 degrees, and they are paid but eight and one-third cents for an hour's work. They therefore have to work twelve hours a day in a heated room to earn $1, and as the sugar refineries are operated on Sundays the same as any other day, many of the laborers work every day in the week that they may earn $7. Those of the laborers who are married are compelled to look to their wives to help support the family, which the women do in some cases by taking in washing."—N. Y. World.

Olinghouse Canyon.

Considerable interest is manifested in the new mining prospects at Olinghouse Canyon. Within the past two weeks a number of Renoites have visited the mines and in every instance they have returned with flattering reports of the outlook. A number of assays have been made that have added more enthusiasm to the opinions of those who have been there and it is now believed that the success of the camp is an assured fact. Situated as it is within a few miles of Wadsworth gives it additional merit, for it does not cost a fortune to get there while the transportation of freight and supplies will be at a comparatively small expense. So far the only drawback to the camp is the lack of development work and now that outside parties have become interested, this will be pushed forward. A townsite is talked of and even a mill for the reduction of the ores, and the indications point to a substantial, permanent and new field of industry in Washoe county that will help her people as well as gain recognition from the outside world. There has been no boom, no solicitation for outside investment, no fairy stories regarding the wealth in sight nor great prospects of development, but the little band that have had faith in the limited discoveries made, have worked along quietly until now they have enough in sight to justify them to ask the outside world to come and investigate and see the real gold in its native state without the aid of glass or the intricate and complex methods of working ore on a doubtful proposition of getting something out of it. The gold is there and the quantity is sufficient even under the present limited facilities of procuring it, to make it pay a handsome profit, and it is believed that it will not be many months before the promoters of the Olinghouse mines will astonish the world, and McClanenburgh will redeem Nevada's lost laurels as the leading mining center of the country.

DISEASES IN CATTLE.

Steps Being Taken to Prevent Spread of Splenetic Fever.

Dr. J. F. Morse, of the State Board of Health, has been in Washington, D. C., for some time consulting with the Secretary of Agriculture with a view to securing some changes in the quarantine laws in this State against splenetic fever in cattle. The present quarantine law has been a great disadvantage to California stock raisers and shippers. Dr. Morse wrote to Governor Budd that at the earliest convenience the Secretary of Agriculture would send to California an inspector to inspect the entire State thoroughly to determine the infection of cattle by the splenetic fever. In concluding his letter to the Governor, Dr. Morse says:

"I shall send word to Dr. Matthews, and respectfully suggest that you send for both Dr. Ruggles and Dr. Matthews and impress upon them the necessity of maintaining this quarantine line, so that there can be no cause for complaint by the United States Government of negligence or inefficiency on the part of the State Board of Health."

"I believe a most rigid quarantine should be maintained until the thorough and complete investigation promised is made, and thus troublesome matter is definitely and finally settled."

Peter J. Shields, Private Secretary to Governor Budd, has sent a copy of Dr. Morse's letter, in addition to a circular letter, to every Board of Supervisors and every District Attorney in the State. In the circular letter the officials are urged to see that the laws to prevent the spread of contagious or infectious diseases among domestic animals are strictly enforced.—Beaumont

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia, succeeding La Grillo. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store. Regular size, 50 cts. and $1.

The Viavi Cause.

It is impossible to take Viavi into the system without benefit. It is purely vegetable and as a nerve and tissue builder has no equal. It can be used with perfect safety by the most delicate, and is used upon the smallest children.

Patrons of the remedy can consult our physicians free of charge. I will take pleasure in explaining its various uses to all who may call.

BREVITIES.

Col. Maxon informed the Independent that he had surveyed 500,000 acres of land in Elko county last year and would survey 200,000 this year.

The neat little sum of $20,000 has been offered and refused for the Oro Grande mine at Gold Creek, some of the owners declining to part with it at that price.

It snowed heavily at Virginia on Monday night and was cold enough yesterday morning so that it remained on the roofs of buildings and in shaded corners well on towards noon.

Chas. Lake, Henry and Jerome Higgins and George Becker will leave for Independence Lake this morning. From there they will go to Gold Lake and expect to enjoy a week's fine sport.

H. W. Higgins will leave for Independence Lake this morning. He expects to remain there during the Summer months providing satisfactory arrangements are made, and will manage the hotel.

In the case of Nora Ahern, who was murdered at Eberhardt, White Pine county, May 26th, the Coroner's jury, after examining the body of deceased, rendered a verdict that she came to her death by being killed by some person or persons unknown to the jury. George Halstead a relative of deceased, swore out a complaint against a Frenchman named "Louey," who had lived with Nora for a number of years, charging him with the murder. Louey is in jail at Ely.

Allen Bragg struck out for Olinghouse canyon yesterday morning. He seemed to be a little late in arriving at the depot or was confused over his anticipated journey, or it might be said that he was trying to fool the railroad company. At any rate he grabbed wildly at some car steps as the train pulled out and the last seen of him he was occupying the platform of the blind baggage with three blind squaws as traveling companions. The train went on its way and it is probable that when he returns an article will appear in the Gazette entitled, "The Life of a Hobo, or Beating my Way on the S. P. R. R." ## Will Ascend Mount Rose.

A party consisting of Professor Church and wife, Dr. McN. Miller and wife, Rev. F. C. Lee, Rev. S. Unsworth, wife and sister, will take a copper tube provided by the Sierra Club, for holding names of those visiting the summits of high mountains on the Sierra range, to the top of Mount Rose. It is supposed that tourists will register their names, conditions of the weather, and other data, and in due time the record is taken and placed in the Academy of Sciences.

The party will leave this morning, the weather permitting.

District Court.

The Feely estate case was resumed yesterday. Witnesses were put on the stand and the attorneys varied the monotony of argument on points of law by now and then questioning witnesses. The case is an interesting one and has an especial attraction for the legal profession, judging by the attendance of lawyers at each day's session. The case will probably take up all of the present week.

Mrs. Julia Blackburn of Chicago has already sprung up as an heir to Barney Barnato, the South African diamond king who committed suicide. She claims she is a legitimate daughter by his first wife. She says she will go to Johannesburg if necessary to prosecute her claim.

Standard Hardware At Standard Prices

a-lifetime hardware that is cheapest in the end. Paying less value and half the satisfaction. Buying at a higher price than we ask is paying more than the goods are worth.

A LESSON IN ECONOMICS

4. Young Woman Gives a Young Man

Some Valuable Tips

Again it is a Washington girl

This time she appears as an angel of economy to a young man who needs

that kind of angelic administration

but is much as any other young man in the Capital City, and she is just as successful as if she were tramping him

under her scaly heel and making him feel how utterly helpless man is in conflict with the irresistible!

"By Jove" he says, this sort of thing is simply intolerable!

"What sort of thing?" he inquired,

with admiring pose,

"Why, I have just had to pay a messenger 40 cents to deliver a note up to a man. It would be cheaper to hire a cab and have the driver

still charge to have sent it by steamship!"

"What is the note?" she asked,

curiously, before she thought

"A response to an invitation to un-

"Forty cents is cheap for a good dinner," she replied.

"But I can't go," he wailed.

It was a declaration, and the 40 cents on top of that. Really though, this messenger service is a real imposition and should be tolerated. Twenty-five cents hour is ample, with short distances 10 cents.

The conven-

is clearly worth it, but mere

it is that a plain exhibition of the greed of the rich."

Sen. L. C. Ladd, the young man, is to be pitied. You are the rich, and it is because you do not know it that you are so poor. Now I will tell you the secret of wealth.

It is to be poor.

You are the rich, and it is because
